HEY, YOU'RE
IN BIG ORANGE
COUNTRY

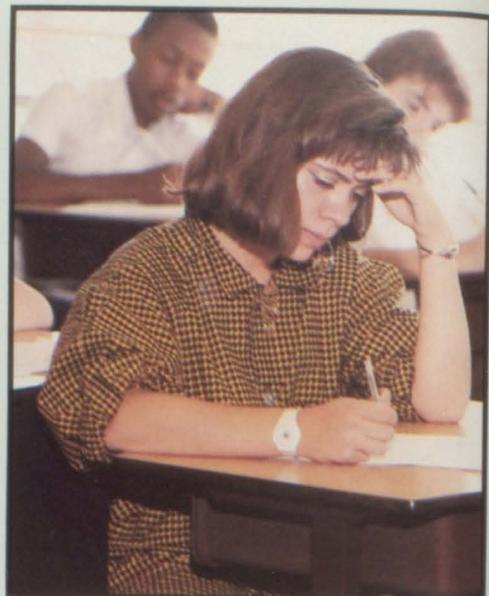

When people talk about "a classic" or something "classical" they may be referring to music, or architecture, or literature. Whatever the case however, classic is defined as "serving as a standard of excellence" or "authoritative", rather than "new" or "experimental".

In a unique way Central High School serves as that standard in Macon, Georgia. Central has the distinct honor of being among a select few high schools statewide awarded as a school of excellence. This is standing proof that "We are clearly #1 in our class."

STUDENT LIFE

IN OUR CLASS

Students concentrate in the classic ways — all attention on task. No wonder we produce excellence!

A student's life at Central is filled with a variety of activities. Cramming last minute studies for next period's test is something all individuals can relate to. Whether it is a "#1" performance at halftime or sneaking a quick bubble or laugh at half-class, all of these contribute to the "classic" times at Central high we shared during the year.

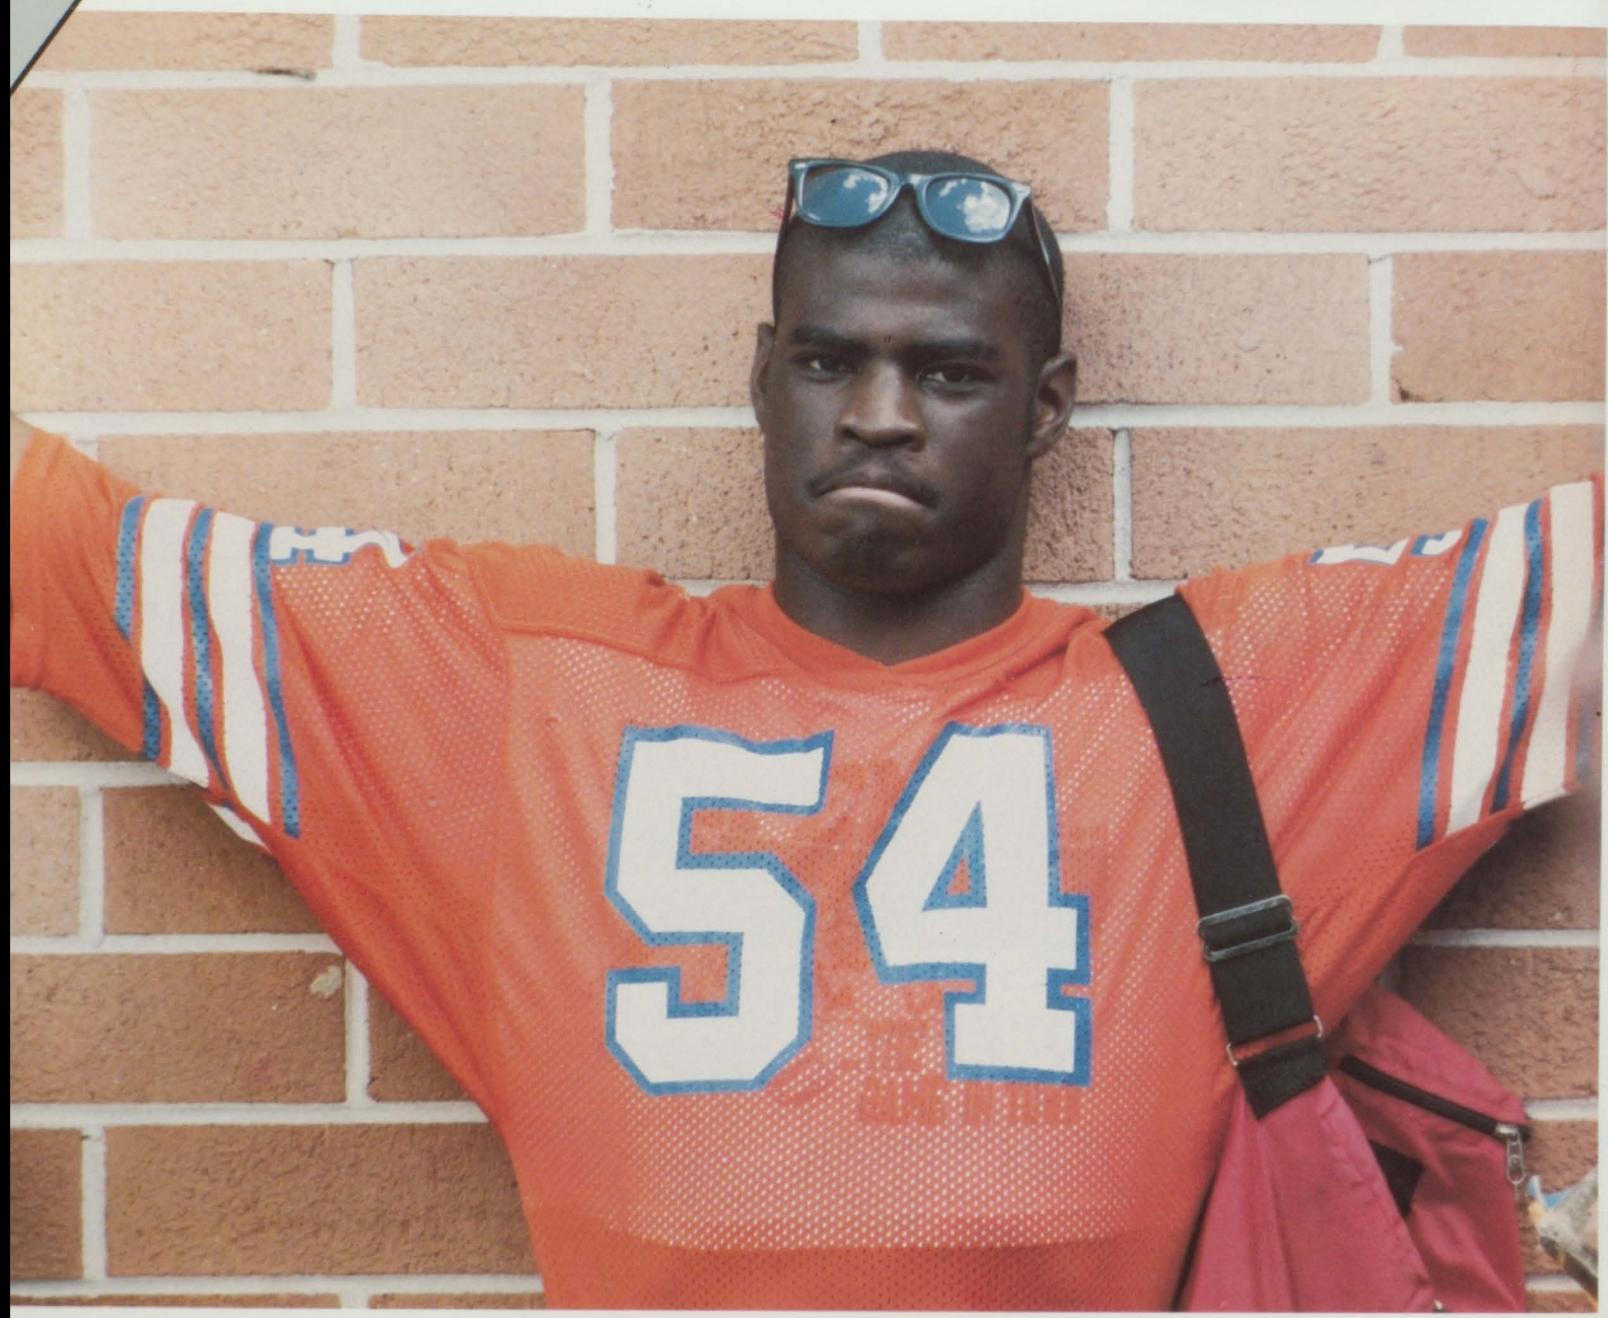

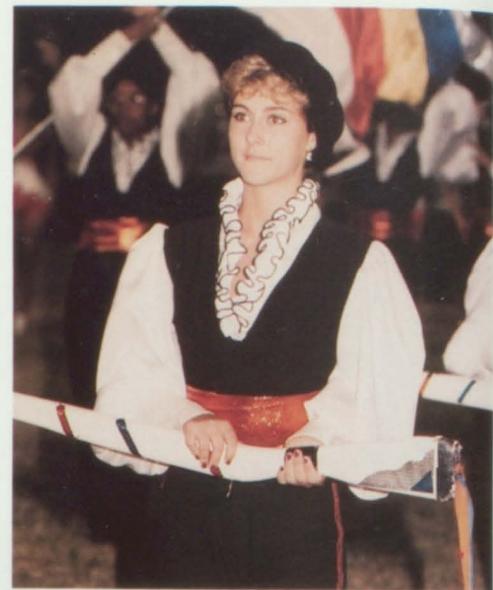

Will Davidson, Cab Baldwin, Janice Lee, and a mysterious young lady wearing sunglasses, all take time out between classes to wait or talk to friends and maybe just to have some good ole' fun.

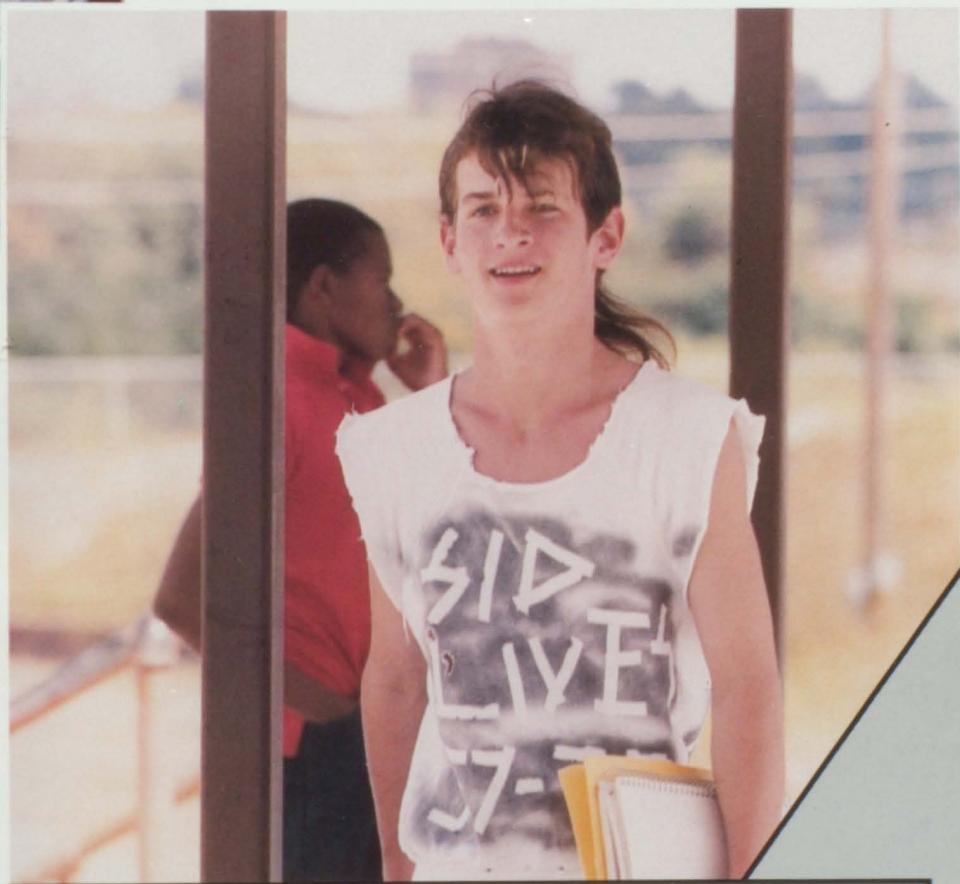

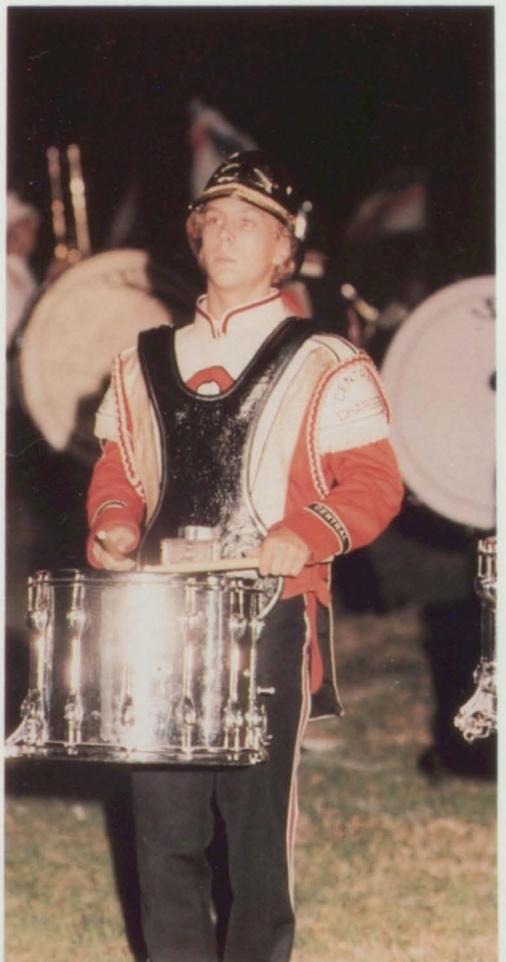

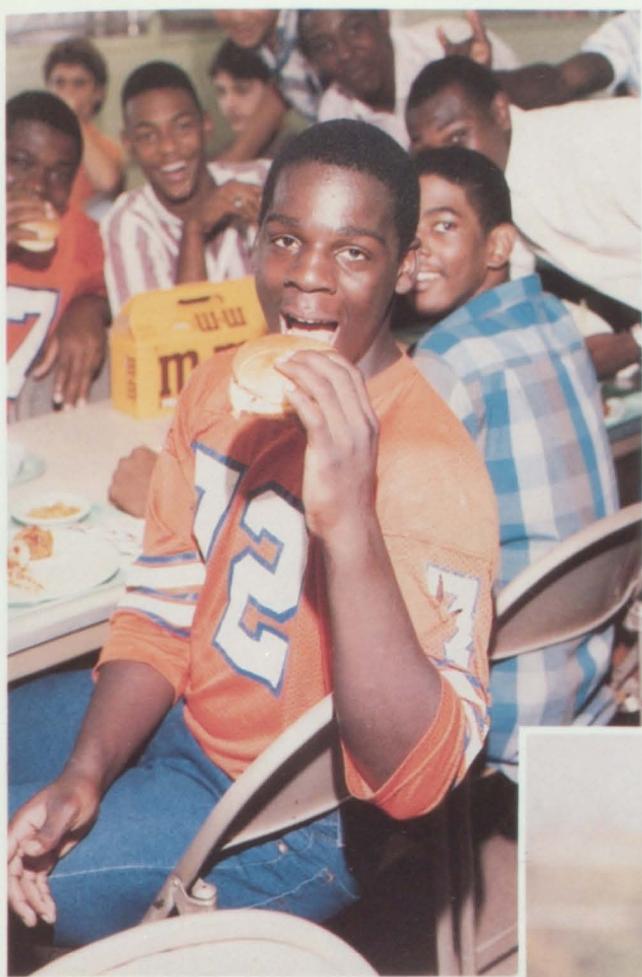

STUDENT LIFE

OUTSIDE CLASS

CLASSIC

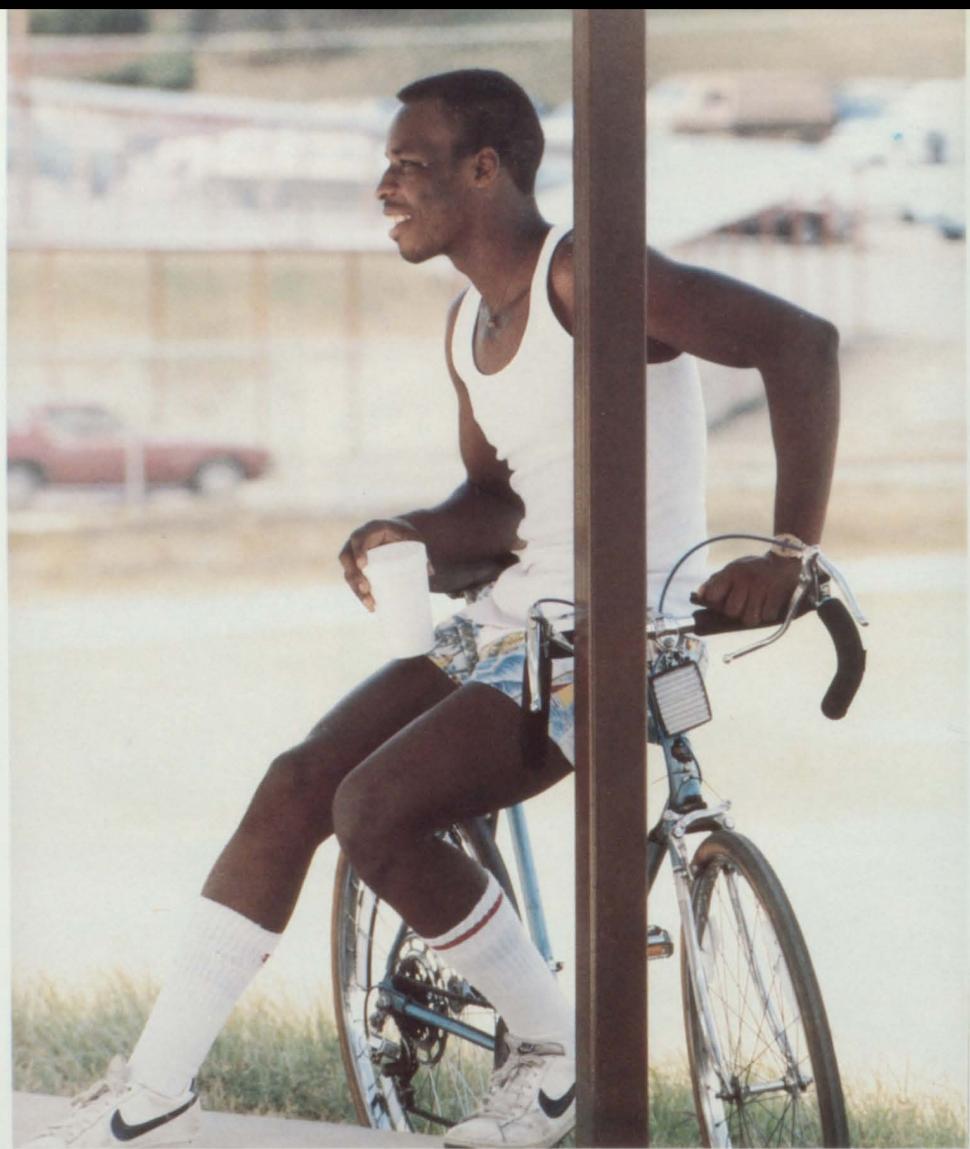

Classic moments are ones that are unforgettable. Day-to-day routines such as changing classes and waiting in the lunch line are moments that we will always remember. Top performances on the football field lift our days out of the routine into exceptional moments that we will never forget.

MOMENTS

When the last bell rings, students relax in their own unique ways — whether it's ringing up a friend or taking a few moments to reflect on how life is treating them, all students enjoy their free time after school.

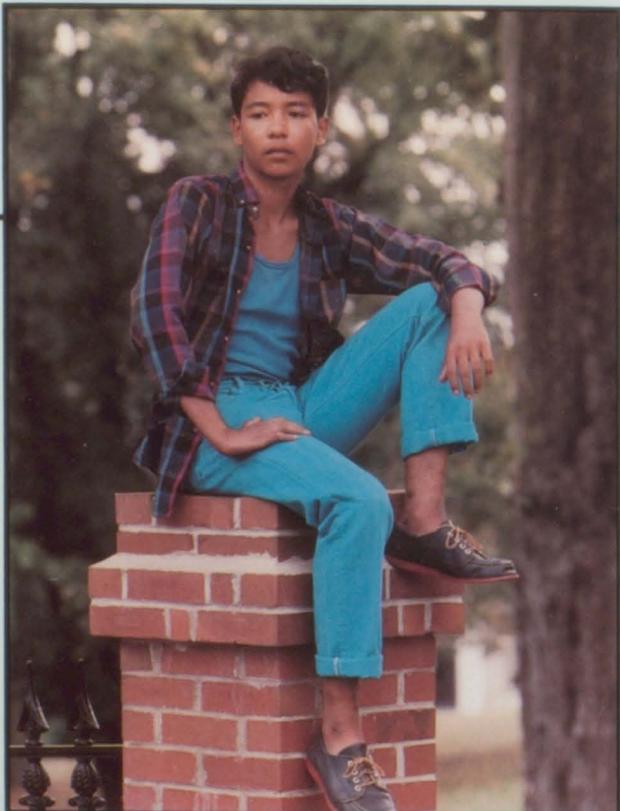

DISTINGUISHED

YET CAREFREE

Fads and fashions are one of the most important aspects of a student's school life. They show individual style as well as the styles popular today. Through the years, the style of clothes has changed dramatically. Each year has its own style, but many styles of previous years have repeated themselves.

The clothing worn by students at Central High School display a variety of these styles. Some of the most popular girls' apparel this year includes Forenza sportswear, paisley tops and pants, long and knee length skirts, tapestry prints, and over-sized shirts and sweaters. Accessories play a major role as well. These included his/her Swatch watches, rhinestone jewelry, and bangle bracelets.

The guys have their own style as well. They prefer rugby and plaid shirts worn with faded jeans. However, dress pants are still on the same.

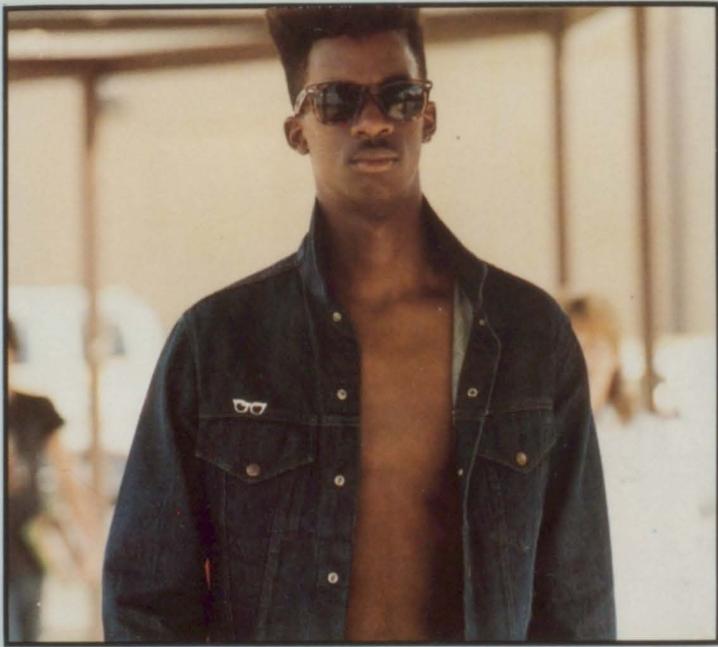

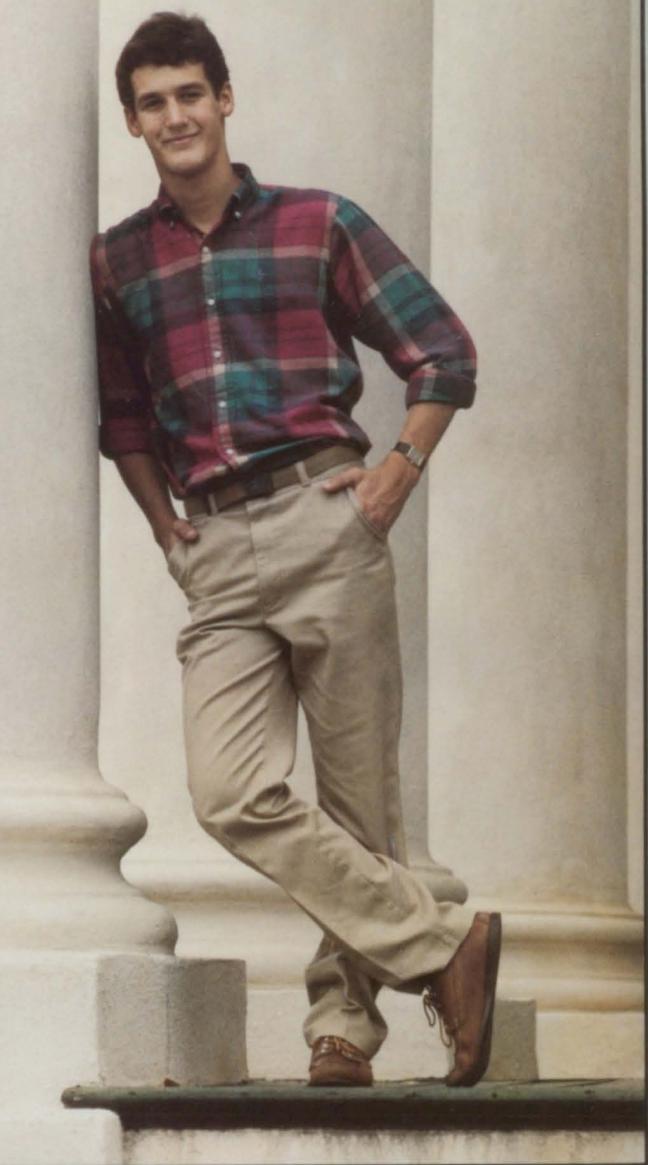

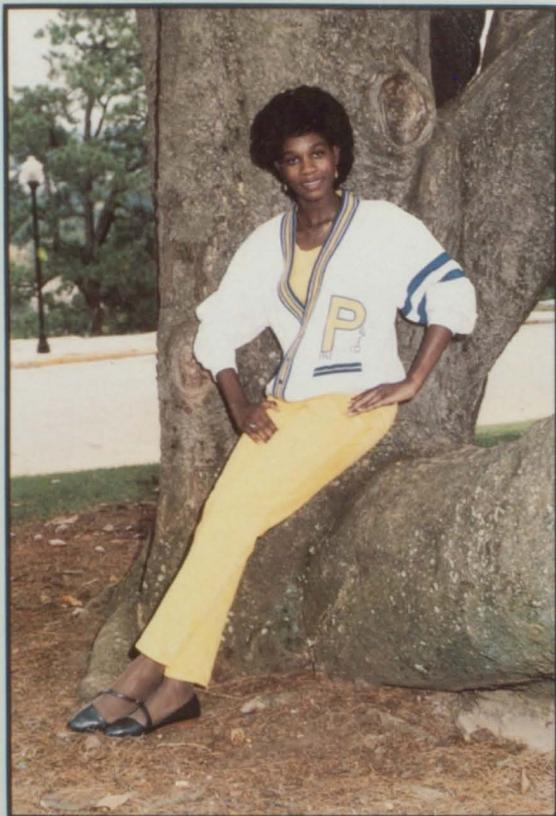

As always, hair styles play a major part in fashion. Shaved sides and dyed hair are extremely popular with both guys and girls. The hair is worn loosely with less shape and styling.

Fads and fashions are always changing and will continue to do so in the future. Central will always be up to date with the "classic" styles of today and tomorrow.

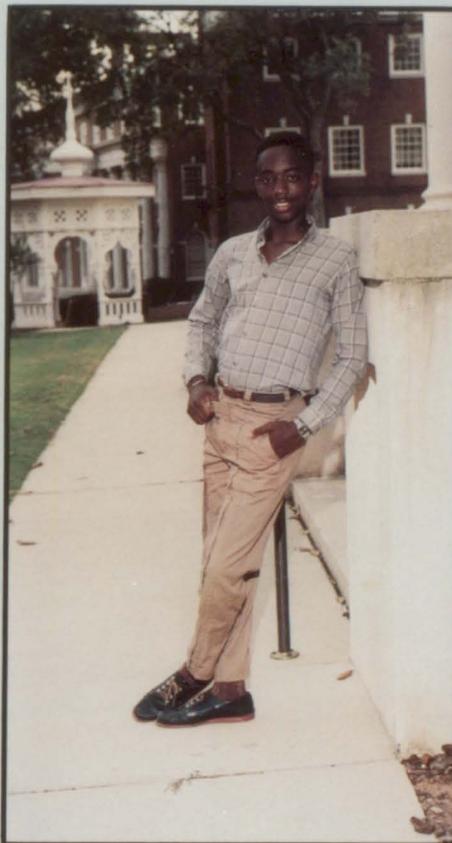

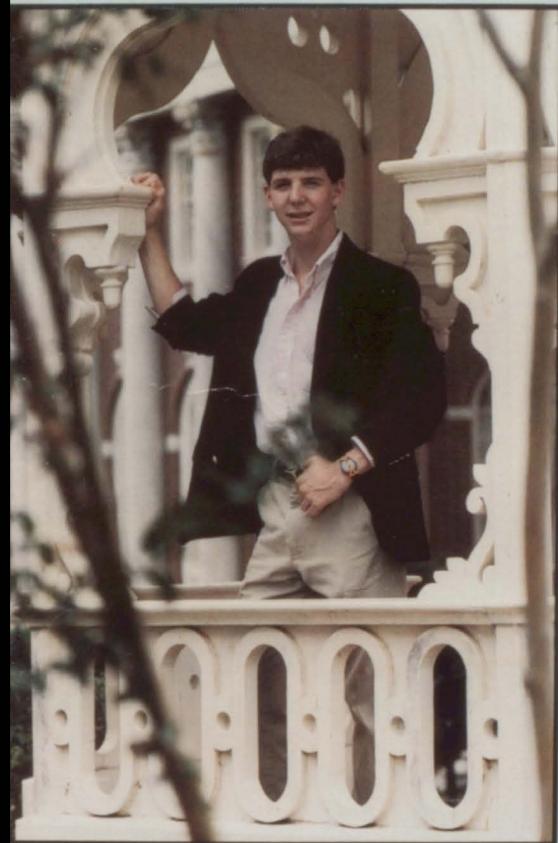

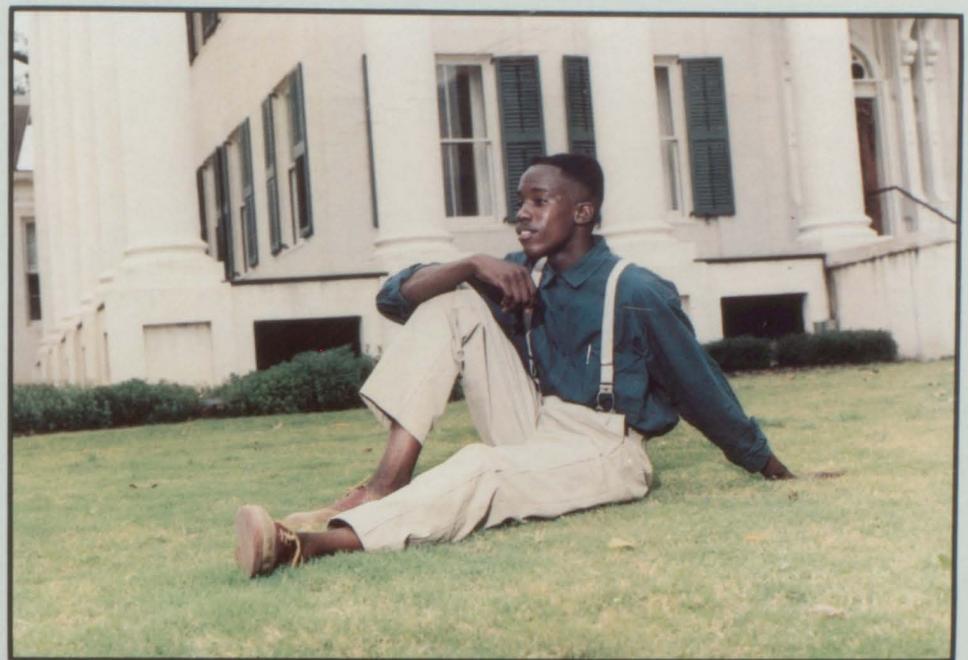

GIVING THAT CLASSIC LOOK

As you can well see, there is clearly an assortment of fashion at Central. Gail Fleming, upper left, sports the varsity sweater look, while Glen Bennet, top right, exemplifies the "prep" look with his plaid button-down shirt and campside shoes. Above, Shannon Heath wears a paisley blouse — not to mention her above-the-knee print skirt! Tina Marshall pictured with her, also carries the paisley look into her jacket which she teams with solid black pants and high top shoes. To the right, Bradley Gaston shows off his "wedge" haircut and blue jean jacket; both are definitely looks of the 80's.

Tauquilla Belcher shows us how vivid colors combine for a dressy three piece look which exudes confidence. Darrell Finney observes life with open interest as he stands smartly wearing his classic plaid shirt. Todd Faircloth gives his jacket and oxford shirt sporty relief with this year's hottest fad, the Swatch.

Clockwise: Marcia Gibbs models a sophisticated look in her black jersey dress topped with a print overblouse which projects a classic, yet casual appearance. Oran Wilder, dressed in pleated pants paired with matching suspenders, relaxes for awhile on the lawn.

... THAT CLASSIC LOOK

A potpourri of good times at Central High School is displayed in various ways; winning the homecoming is something a very few of us are honored with, but goofing off with friends is something we all do.

Under the leadership of Coach Randy Brown, the Central Boys Basketball team had another outstanding season. After placing second in both the sub-region and region tournaments, the Chargers qualified for state. Beating Tift County, 59 to 56, in the first round, the team rolled into the semifinals only to suffer a heart-breaking one point loss to Sprayberry, 40 to 41, in the final second. During the season the squad was ranked in the top three in Middle Georgia, and players Eric Reid, Kelvin Rutland, and Anthony Haynes were among Middle Georgia's Top Twenty boys. The team finished the year with a more than impressive 20-8 record. Needless to say, this was definitely a "classic" year for the varsity group.

Wrestling is a very rigorous sport which requires great discipline and dedication to excel. The average athlete is not willing to pay the price day in and day out work that wrestling does. This year seemed to take more of this than the typical year.

The 1985-86 wrestling year is composed of many wrestlers who had never wrestled competitively. Despite of this lack of experience the team pulled through and the individual wrestlers made considerable progress throughout the season. A few of the more notable wrestlers were: Marty Randolph 112 lb. class, Torrance Clark 119 lb. class, Rickly Plagge 138 lb. class, Mike Leverett 145 lb. class, Willie Johnson 155 lb. class, Jerry Johnson 167 lb. class, Joe Boyd 185 lb. class, and Precell Brooks heavyweight class.

Mike Leverett is a third year wrestler and entered the area tournament as the number one seed. Mike will be our best chance of placing in the state wrestling tournament.

With the return of many experienced wrestlers, the outlook for next year looks very promising.

It has been a great year for Central's Pegasus staff. Under the close supervision of Mrs. Virginia Hauck, the staff has devoted many hours during and after school to the completion of this year's annual. The staff also had the fine creative input of Josten's Publishing Company representative, Matt Kutch. These combined efforts have made this book one of the finest yearbooks produced by Central students.

CLASS OF '86

In Memory Of Margaret Matthews

Dec. 13, 1966-Dec. 18, 1985

When those we love have stepped across
The threshold of God's door,
They leave behind those memories
That make us love them more.
We shall see her in HIS likeness
When we, too, have passed beyond,
Hand in hand around God's Altar
When our work on earth is done.
